

You Can Be Notified When a Defendant is Released from Jail...

As a result of Virginia's 1995 Crime Victim and Witness Rights Act, victims have the right to be notified upon a defendant's release from jail/prison. If a prisoner is being held in our local Virginia Peninsula Regional Jail and you wish to be notified of his/her release, you must request that notification in writing.

It is your responsibility to notify this agency. If interested, fill out the information requested below, detach it, and return it to:
